

Temple Baptist Church
Pastor's Hour
Sedric D. Veal Sr., Lead Servant

Letting Jesus Fulfill All Your Needs
(Colossians 1:15–23)

There are four predicted things everyone needs to be happy. We are all variedly packaged uniquely different outwardly in many ways, but on the inside we all have the same four basic needs. Life's most unnoticed realization is that people, prestige, power, or possessions never satisfy the real needs. However, the good news is Jesus Christ can fulfill all four basic needs.

The Need To Know God (1:15–17)

Write out Colossians 1:15 -

Eikon is translated as _____. Which is where the word _____ is derived from.

Write out Hebrews 1:3 -

Likeness - meaning _____ is the exact likeness or mirror image of _____.

Write out John 14:9 -

Who was Jesus dialoging with in John 14:9? _____

Manifestation - The Greek word doesn't denote a _____; it implies manifestation of the _____ of something.

How do cults use this phrase to distort our thinking?

Prototokos is translated firstborn and refers to the _____ child.

Write out Revelation 19:16 -

What is written on the robe and thigh of the glorified Jesus?

What does Paul explain in Colossians 1:16a?

List four words that refer to the various ranks of angels according to verse 16b: _____, _____, _____ and _____.

Jesus Christ is not simply a part of _____; He is the _____ of all things, including angels (1:16c).

What is the primary lesson of Colossians 1:17?

But what else does Colossians 1:17 tell us about Jesus Christ?

Consist means “_____” or “_____.”

So the primary lesson is when the what's of life bog you down - remember the Who is greater than any what you may encounter.

Can you list twenty things you've learned about God without struggling to do so?